1. AUSTRALIA DAY AWARDS

The above awards are given by Council after considering nominations received in each category.

The Council have adopted the following process for considering nominations:

- The Mayor be authorised to select three (3) or four (4) people he/she considers appropriate to judge nominations for the Australia Day Awards; and
- The Mayor keep confidential, the names of the people he/she selects to be on the judging panel; and
- Each panel member, independently, prioritise nominations received; and
- The panel be authorised to make the decision as to successful recipients of awards; and
- The award winners be announced at the Christmas Pageant but the unsuccessful nominations be kept confidential; and
- Presentation of the awards is conducted at the Australia Day celebrations.
